

Access Land around Townend Common

This is an area of moorland that is managed to promote access and nature conservation by the Steel Valley Project. The site has also been designated as a Local Nature Reserve. Several steep and rough paths cross the site, as well as an Easy Going Trail. There are no gates or stiles on the site or on the Trail. The upper slopes of the site offer superb views across the Upper Don Valley.

Key

-  Access Land
-  Public open space
-  Car park
-  Main Access Point
-  Main path
-  Easy Going Trail
-  Bench
-  Information point