

Full Ceremony Choice 2

I would like to welcome you all to the Sheffield Register Office today. This room in which we are met has been duly sanctioned according to law for the celebration of Civil Partnership Ceremonies.

We are here today to celebrate and formally witness the celebration of and in their civil partnership ceremony.

..... and have invited you here today to share their special day and, in return, you are here to show your support and encouragement to them.

And on their behalf I would like to thank you for joining them to celebrate this happy occasion and hopefully a day to remember for the rest of their lives.

If any person present knows of any impediment to this Civil Partnership they should declare it now.

..... and

have found love, friendship and happiness in their relationship with each other and now they have chosen to offer to each other the strength and security that comes from the commitment of this legally binding contract.

I am sure all gathered here today wish you both every happiness and success - may your trust and understanding of each other increase your contentment and strengthen your joy in living.

VOWS

Each to repeat after Registrar

I promise to share my life with you
I promise to respect, encourage and care for you. I will respect you as an individual and be true to you in good times and bad.

May we look to the future together with love, happiness and joy and remembering this day allow nothing to destroy the feelings that we share.

EXCHANGE OF RINGS

..... and
are now invited to exchange rings

A ring is a symbol of the special bond between two people, an unbroken circle symbolising unending and everlasting love and is the outward sign of the lifelong promises you have made to each other today.

Third finger of left hand (or finger of choice)

I give you this ring as a token of my love, respect and commitment to you and a lasting reminder of the promises made between us today. I promise to care for you above all others, to cherish and support you throughout the rest of our lives together.

We now come to the signing of the schedule which will bind

..... and together in law.

Each partner to repeat (if desired)

I declare that I know of no legal reason why we may not register as each other's civil partner. I understand that on signing this document we will be forming a civil partnership with each other.

..... and

will you please sit at the ceremony table to sign the civil partnership schedule.

Witnesses to sign

..... and you are now civil partners in law. May the love and respect that you feel for each other today grow ever deeper as the years go by.

May you both find that your partnership brings you strength when you need support, comfort when you are sad and much shared joy and happiness. We all share in that happiness, congratulate you and extend our best wishes for your future life together.

Ladies and Gentleman will you please congratulate

..... and
as they celebrate their partnership.

[round of applause]
