Sheffield Life and Times at Weston Park Museum

Images from the Archives and Local Studies collections feature in Museums Sheffield's Sheffield Life and Times exhibition at Weston Park. The museum is open every day including Sundays.

6 week family History Course

We'll be running another Beginning Your Family History course every Thursday afternoon from January 19th 2017. Course fees are £60. Email archives@sheffield.gov.uk or telephone 0114 203 9395 or 0114 203 4753 to book. But hurry, these courses are really popular!

School of Art Study Guide

Our latest study guide lists all the available resources at Archives and Local Studies as well as Sheffield Hallam University's Special Collections to research the students from the Sheffield School of Art.

Donate to our Conservation and Digitisation Appeal

Our appeal to repair and digitise archive items has recently been launched. If you'd like to help us add more items to Picture Sheffield you can read more about our appeal and how to donate here.

Reproduction items on EBay

Look out for reproduction prints, maps and advertisements that we periodically make available to purchase via our eBay shop. All funds raised are reinvested in the library and archives service.

Living Knowledge Network Sheffield Libraries and Archives have recently signed up to the British Library's Living Knowledge Network. The Network of major libraries across the UK aims to share knowledge, collections and creativity. You can read more about the Network here.
Canvas prints available from Picture Sheffield As well as a standard 10x8 prints you can now order large stretched canvas images (mounted on a wooden frame). These are ideal for wall displays. Prices start at £39.00 plus postage.
History Events There is a whole host of local and family history events taking place in Sheffield's libraries between now and Christmas - from Pox, Pus and Privies to a Time Traveller's Guide to Tudor Sheffield. For details of upcoming events visit our website or pick up a brochure from any library in the city.
