I do hope you will enjoy a go at the Lord Mayor’s Walk as a way to keep fit. The route making your discovery is one of the many points of interest which shows the hidden way of Sheffield, its history and its contrast. It generally follows the river and more level ground above the town. We hope you have enjoyed your journey through this unique section of the Peak District. Why not have a go at it too?!
This map is reproduced from Ordnance Survey material with the permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of the Controller of Her Majesty’s Stationery Office. © Crown Copyright. Unauthorised reproduction infringes Crown copyright and may lead to prosecution or civil proceedings: 100018816. 2011.

Roads:
- Leavygreave Rd - right - up steps - left - right, underpass
- Crookes Rd
- Hallamgate Rd
- Tapton House Rd
- Tapton Crescent Rd
- Selborne Rd
- Watt Lane
- Whitworth Rd
- Ivy Park Rd
- Carsick Hill Rd
- Hallamshire Rd
- Barncliffe Rd
- Winchster Rd
- Crimicar Avenue
- Soughley Lane

Features:
2. The Great Dam – 1785 – The largest of 6 of Sheffield’s inner town reservoirs
3. Narrow Lane – old gennel to Crookesmoor
4. Conduit Path – 1833 – Site of open water course from Redmires to Crookesmoor
5. Prisoner of War Camp (WWII)
6. Army Training Camp for Sheffield’s “Pals Battalion” – WWII
7. ‘5 miles from Sheffield’ Guide Stone – now a field gate post
8. ‘3 miles from Sheffield’ Guide Stone – opposite Hallam Gate Road
9. Hallam Football Ground – 1860 – Oldest football ground in the world
10. Site of “Wesley Tower” 19th century Methodist Chapel – one of the highest places in the old town