Introduction

Sheffield Wednesday Football Club, also known as 'The Owls' (so-called because the team played at Owlerton from 1899) formed in 1867 in Sheffield. The Club's ground is at the Hillsborough Stadium, Sheffield.

This Study Guide does not present a detailed history of Sheffield Wednesday Football Club, but rather lists some of the key sources relating to the Club at Sheffield Archives and Sheffield Local Studies Library. The Guide's list of document references directs the researcher towards a range of sources available in both these repositories.

The main archive for the Club is held at Sheffield Wednesday Football Club. For further information write to: Sheffield Wednesday Football Club, Hillsborough Stadium, Sheffield, S6 1SW or email: enquiries@sheffieldwednesday.com

Timeline showing key dates

1867	Sheffield Wednesday Football Club was established in 1867 - The club was initially a cricket team named The Wednesday Cricket Club after the day of the week when they played their matches.
Oct 1867	The club played their first football match in October 1867 against the Mechanics Club at Norfolk Park
1870	Brothers Charles and William Clegg join Sheffield Wednesday.
1887	SWFC became a professional club, building their own stadium off Queens Road called the Olive Grove ground. The name Sheffield Wednesday was painted on the roof stand.
1889	The club's first application to join the Football League was rejected; the following season they were elected to join Division One.
1896	SWFC won the FA cup for the first time beating Wolverhampton Wanderers 2-1.
1899	The club move from their original ground at Olive Grove to Hillsborough Stadium. They became known as the Owls following this move to the new ground in the Owlerton district of Sheffield.
1929	The club officially changed its name from The Wednesday Football Club to Sheffield Wednesday Football Club .
1947	Derek Dooley joined Sheffield Wednesday - between 1950 and 1953 he scored 62 goals in 61 league games for the Owls, along with one goal from his two FA Cup appearances.
1964	British betting scandal – three players, Peter Swan, David Layne and Tony Kay were convicted of match fixing and betting against their own team.
1984	Revival in fortunes saw the club return to Division One.
1989	The FA Cup semi-final tie between Liverpool and Nottingham Forest kicked off at Hillsborough Stadium but was abandoned six minutes into the game. Overcrowding resulted in the deaths of 96 people.
1995 - 2004	A period of turbulence which saw eight different managers take charge of the club.

Sheffield Wednesday F.C. built their first stadium off Queens Road, Sheffield called the Olive Grove ground in 1887 upon becoming a professional club. The club moved from this ground to the Hillsborough Stadium in 1899. Various planning application files which include plans of the stand, lighting, Directors' Box and pavilion survive at Sheffield Archives dating from 1927 (ref. CA206).

Newspapers

See also: the two main Sheffield newspapers - the Sheffield Morning Telegraph [later Sheffield Telegraph] and The Star, both of which are available on microfilm at Sheffield Local Studies Library.

Local newspapers are indispensable when it comes to researching the history of local football clubs. They give detailed weekly match analysis and often include photographs.

See: Star Green 'Un (Sheffield), 1907 to date; the weekly sports paper first published as the Saturday Sports Edition of the Yorkshire Telegraph and Star on 14 September 1907, later known as Week and Sports Special Green 'Un, Sports Special The Green 'Un and more recently Star Green 'Un at Sheffield Local Studies Library.

Magazines, fanzines and souvenir supplements

Various fanzines have been published on Sheffield Wednesday including: War of the Monster Trucks (1993 to date) and View from the Eastbank (1992 to date). Copies are available at Sheffield Local Studies Library. There are also hundreds of supplements and souvenir specials produced by The Star and others relating to local derbies and cup matches. Search Sheffield Libraries' online catalogue for further details: <http://library.sheffield.gov.uk/uhtbin/webcat>

Left: various supplements and souvenir specials have been produced by The Star relating to the local football clubs. See the MP collection at Sheffield Local Studies Library - search Sheffield Libraries' online catalogue for further details: <http://library.sheffield.gov.uk/uhtbin/webcat> or browse through old newspapers on microfilm at Sheffield Local Studies Library.

Club histories

The ups and downs of the Club's history are comprehensively recounted in books such as: Keith Farnsworthy, Sheffield Wednesday: a complete record, 1867 – 1987, 1987 (Sheffield Local Studies Library: 796.334 S).

Newspapers

Star Green 'Un (Sheffield), 1907 to date. (Weekly sports paper first published as the Saturday Sports Edition of the Yorkshire Telegraph and Star on 14 September 1907, later known as Week and Sports Special Green 'Un, Sports Special The Green 'Un and more recently Star Green 'Un).
(Sheffield Local Studies Library)

The two main Sheffield newspapers are the Sheffield Morning Telegraph [later Sheffield Telegraph] and The Star, and these are available on microfilm at Sheffield Local Studies Library. There are no indexes to the newspapers but other sources can be used to try to establish the dates of events. 'The year's record' in The Sheffield Year Book (Local Studies Library: 032.74 S) provides a chronological list of events taken from the newspapers.

Archives of some national newspapers are available on the internet, notably The Times (<http://archive.timesonline.co.uk>) and The Guardian (<http://archive.guardian.co.uk>)

The British Library British Newspapers 1800-1900 website includes over two million pages from over 70 national and local newspapers (including the Sheffield and Rotherham Independent) (<http://gdc.gale.com/products/19th-century-british-library-newspapers-part-i-and-part-ii>)

Photographs

Over 40,000 images from the Sheffield Local Studies Library photographic collection are available to search online at www.picturesheffield.com.

Moving film

British Pathe are a media company which was established in 1902. Their founder, Charles Pathe, pioneered the development of the moving image. Free access to hours of footage from the early 20th century to 1970 is available on the British Pathe website: www.britishpathe.com

A number of early football matches, training sessions and interviews were filmed, for example:

"Sheffield stops work - huge crowds welcome the Cup Winners" – footage showing Sheffield Wednesday Football Team buses moving slowly through huge crowds, the players holding the FA Cup aloft, 1935.

Adding to our collections

Sheffield Libraries and Archives seek to preserve information about events in our city's history. If you have photographs or personal papers that may be worth preserving please consider safeguarding them for current and future generations by placing them in the care of Sheffield Libraries and Archives. It is only through the generosity of individuals and organisations that we are able to have a complete record of important events in the history of Sheffield and the nation. We are interested in photographs, flyers and posters, minutes of meetings etc. For advice on record keeping and the facilities we offer please contact Peter Evans, Archives & Local Studies Manager (pete.evans@sheffield.gov.uk or 0114 203 9397).
